DID YOU KNOW?

Prior to June 1, 1954 Veterans Day was known as Armistice Day.

Veterans Day is to celebrate the service of all US military veterans, not to be confused with Memorial Day which is a day of remembering the men and women who died while serving.

Veterans Day is the mark of the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended World War I. This was formally signed at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918

There's a small selection of DVDs on sale for $1.00 each... at this price they'll go quick. So stop in and pick up some entertainment for those long, winter, New Hampshire nights. (Please note: we're closed on Friday the 11th for Veteran's Day)

November is "DINOVENBER" all month long in the children's section.

We will have special dinosaur themed activities and crafts available all month long. Check out our collection of dinosaur books to learn even more interesting facts about dinosaurs.

MAIN STREET STORYWALK®

November is National Picture Book Month and to celebrate we have partnered with local businesses and created a Storywalk® along Main Street. Take a walk downtown and enjoy reading I Dreamt I was a Dinosaur by Stella Blackstone. Book pages will be on display in the windows of participating businesses! Free bookmarks with a guide to the storywalk on the back are available at the library as well as at participating businesses.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

VETERANS' DAY

Friday the 11th - Library Closed - If You're Free... Thank a Veteran

TRUSTEES MEETING

Monday the 14th at 5 p.m. Open to the public

GAMES NIGHT - ADULTS ONLY

Monday the 14th & 28th at 6 p.m... Sharpen your word skills with Scrabble.

MOVIE AFTERNOON

Friday the 18th at 3 p.m. for Middle and High Schoolers... we provide the popcorn.

YAH BOOK GROUP

Thursday the 17th at 4 p.m. (Young at Heart) - "The Thing About Jellyfish" by Ali Benjamin After her best friend dies in a drowning accident, Suzy is convinced that the true cause of the tragedy must have been a rare jellyfish sting-things don't just happen for no reason. Retreating into a silent world of imagination, she crafts a plan to prove her theory--even if it means traveling the globe, alone. Suzy's achingly heartfelt journey explores life, death, the astonishing wonder of the universe...and the potential for love and hope right next door. (Amazon)

THE BOOKERS

Monday the 21st at 6:30 p.m. - "The Postmistress" by Sarah Blake - In 1940, Iris James is the postmistress in coastal Franklin, Massachusetts. Iris knows more about the townspeople than she will ever say, and believes her job is to deliver secrets. Yet one day she does the unthinkable: slips a letter into her pocket, reads it, and doesn't deliver it.

Meanwhile, Frankie Bard broadcasts from overseas with Edward R. Murrow. Her dispatches beg listeners to pay heed as the Nazis bomb London nightly. Most of the townspeople of Franklin think the war can't touch them. But both Iris and Frankie know better...

The Postmistress is a tale of two worlds--one shattered by violence, the other willfully naïve--and of two women whose job is to deliver the news, yet who find themselves unable to do so. Through their eyes, and the eyes of everyday people caught in history's tide, it examines how stories are told, and how the fact of war is borne even through everyday life. (Amazon)

THE NOONERS BOOK GROUP

Tuesday the 22nd at Noon "The Readers of Broken Wheel Recommend" by Katarina Bivald Broken Wheel, Iowa, has never seen anyone like Sara, who traveled all the way from Sweden just to meet her book-loving pen pal, Amy. When she arrives, however, she finds Amy's funeral guests just leaving. The residents of Broken Wheel are happy to look after their bewildered visitor--there's not much else to do in a dying small town that's almost beyond repair.

You certainly wouldn't open a bookstore. And definitely not with the tourist in charge. You'd need a vacant storefront (Main Street is full of them), books (Amy's house is full of them), and...customers. The bookstore might be a little quirky. Then again, so is Sara. But Broken Wheel's own story might be more eccentric and surprising than she thought. (Amazon)

NO STORY TIME/NO CRAFT TIME TODAY

Wednesday the 23rd

CLOSED

Thursday the 24th and Friday the 25th - for Thanksgiving Have a Great Holiday... see you Saturday.
